Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Isaiah 58:7-10; 1 Corinthians 2:1-5; Matthew 5:13-16

Listen to Jesus: "Put your light on a lampstand where it will give light to all in the house." He does just that. Jesus illuminates His 'house,' meaning the universe, with His light: meaning His life, words, actions and love. And what is the light He brings to us in today's Gospel? Listen to Jesus again: "You are the salt of the earth," and "You are the light of the world." Think of how powerful these statements these are for us. Salt sharpens the flavor of our food and preserves it from spoiling. Light enables us to see, even at night, and helps us be safe, along with being able to recognize the beauty of creation. It would certainly be a major undertaking for any of us to become salt and light. But notice, Jesus does not say that we are to "become" salt and light, but that we already are salt and light! What does this mean? Consider this: God has created us in His image, and when we live this out through our words, attitudes and actions, we help others "sharpen" their awareness of God's presence in their lives. They can begin to understand that He is with them no matter what. And when we allow the beauty of God's love to shine out from our hearts, we can help light up the world around us with the brightness of Jesus who gives meaning and hope to His people. What is the result of all this? Jesus answers us Himself at the end of today's Gospel: He tells us that people will "see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." In the end, then, being salt and light is not so that we can glorify ourselves, but it always points to God. It enables us to participate in God's great plan of salvation for His people; we can help others trust that God is here, and that He can be experienced in everyday life; we can help others see His love, even at the darkest times in life; we can be the people we were born to be in life: images of God for one another. So, let's "Listen to Jesus". He has a lot to say to us, and all of it is important!

Discipleship Maker Index Survey

January 21–February 27

It's official! The Disciple Maker Index Survey opens this week and we need your help!

Please help us participate by completing a 10–15 minute survey as soon as possible.

- Go to <http://bit.ly/3QKQynu>
- There is also an option to complete the survey via paper. Please contact the parish office for a paper copy.

The survey will only be available from January 21 – February 27 and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to St. Margaret of York and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

Thank you for helping with this important project!

Yes – the Discipleship Maker Index does not collect any personal information.

How long does it take to complete the survey?

The Discipleship Maker Index is a 75-question multi-choice survey that typically 10–15 minutes to complete.

Why aren't there spaces to write comments on the Discipleship Maker Index?

Notes from Honduras

It is the beginning of a New Year and schools in Honduras will be opening in about 2 weeks. The school year always starts around the beginning of February. On February 2nd, people celebrate the Virgin of Honduras, Our Lady of Suyapa. The students are always excited to see each other and get settled into the routine of being in school. The Home of Nazareth School is about 20 years old. It was built to give children a place to be during the day, to play, and be together in a rather dangerous neighborhood. Today it is the only private school in an urban area that serves the poor. Most other private schools in city areas are for wealthier families.

Covid has devastated the already poor economy in Honduras. Last year was very difficult. The Home of Nazareth feeds the poorest students one nutritious meal each day. All other students can purchase a tortilla with beans and a bit of cheese for about a nickel. There are no government subsidies and food banks in Honduras are non-existent. Several years ago, the bean crop in Honduras failed and some folks created a food bank and solicited donations. The night before the distribution of the food, one of the gangs burned the building holding the food down.

We will take monetary donations for food at any time to help the community of St. Joseph the Worker Parish & Home of Nazareth School, but on February 18 & 19, after all, Masses, we will be accepting donations to help feed the poor in the Nazareth. The poorest student families will get assistance, as well as the elderly that have no family, families that have little or no income, etc. Fr. Sevilla said the suffering from hunger has never been worse in Honduras. You can help ease the pain and suffering by donating.

If you have any questions about this project, you may contact me at t7mcnulty@gmail.com or my husband, Mike, m23sox-mcnulty@gmail.com We always enjoy hearing from you.

Blessings,
Tracy

Q&A

Miraculous Medal

Question:

What is the "Miraculous Medal" and why is it called that?

Answer:

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the "Miraculous Medal" dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee," surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital "M" with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 of medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Saint Catherine's "Miraculous Medal" is among the recognizable and popular symbols of modern Catholicism. Reflecting on its widespread use, the 2001 Vatican document, "Directory on Popular Piety and Liturgy," observes that the medal "recalls the mystery of Redemption, the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Sorrowful Heart of Mary. It signifies the mediatory role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mystery of the Church, the relationship between Heaven and earth, this life and eternal life."

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Humble of the Earth

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

When I think of the Beatitudes, I think of collectible coffee mugs emblazoned with the words Blessed are the peacemakers, with little pastel flowers stenciled in the white spaces of the lettering. I think of greeting cards and decorative wall hangings.

Why? These are the Beatitudes, for heaven's sake — revolutionary and radical. An uncompromising impeachment of worldly values. They are the opposite of banal.

But I cringed from my head to my toes when I read my first draft of this reflection, a retelling of a time in my life when I decided to embrace humility and meekness. I realized that the Beatitudes aren't something I can tell you about. Poverty of spirit, the hunger for righteousness, the gladness God gives to the downtrodden — these are concepts that must be animated within us. They must be lived. So instead of telling you my story, I want you to tell yours.

I invite you to think of a time when you were vulnerable. When you were discouraged or humbled or felt like a failure. A time when you were cut low. The loss of a job, perhaps, or the rejection of a loved one. The abrupt end of some road that you felt sure would be long and prosperous.

Resentment, envy, and vengefulness flourish in moments like this. Did you experience those feelings? Did you embrace them? Did you want to?

What did the world tell you this moment should mean?

What does Christ tell you it should mean? Have you figured it out, or are you still working on it?

God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong. — 1 Corinthians 1:27

Baptism Prep Classes

All sacraments require preparation. Baptism Prep Class is for expectant parents who want to have their child baptized. (If your child is already here, congrats. We will still help you prepare for their Baptism with this class.) Once you have completed the paperwork from the class, you will be able to set the date for your child's Baptism. Baptism prep is required for additional children if it's been 4 or more years since your last class or there is a change in pastor. Contact: baptism@smoy.org to sign up for a class. Please provide your phone number when signing up. You can register for the class anytime during your pregnancy.
