Discipleship Maker Index Survey

January 21–February 27

It's official! The Disciple Maker Index Survey opens this week and we need your help!

Please help us participate by completing a 10–15 minute survey as soon as possible.

- Go to <http://bit.ly/3QKQvnu>
- There is also an option to complete the survey via paper. Please contact the parish office for a paper copy.

The survey will only be available from January 21 – February 27 and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to St. Margaret of York and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

Thank you for helping with this important project!

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Sirach 15:15-20; 1 Corinthians 2:6-10; Matthew 5:17-37

Let's 'unpack' our selection from St. Matthew very carefully! There are a number of issues brought up in today's Gospel: murder, adultery, divorce and taking false oaths. What a minefield this is! And it all begins with a discussion about the law. Once again, Jesus gives us something important to think about. He clearly states that He has not come to abolish the old law. But then, immediately after saying this, He seems to do that very thing, saying over and over, "You have heard it said...but now I say to you..." The issues listed above are then brought out one by one to be examined. It would seem, at first, that Jesus is destroying the 'old law' and setting up a new one in its place. But this would be too simple an interpretation of what is happening here. In fact, Jesus is teaching his disciples to learn to keep the truth of the law in radical love rather than merely to adhere to it out of fear of getting in trouble with God. Without love at its core, the law can easily dissolve into a set of mere precepts that have to be obeyed in order to keep out of hell, or to "win" a place in heaven. Jesus teaches and lives something very different from this. As His followers, we are called to embrace the deepest truth of God's law: that it rests on love for Him and for one another. This does not mean that we forget about the realities of the world in which we live, but rather that we do not set ourselves up as its judge and jury. Our task, as disciples of Jesus, is to take the refrain of our Responsorial Psalm to heart, and "follow the law of the Lord," and do this with humility and love. It is this love that illuminates what the law of God is all about, and it is humility that enables us to accept it, embrace it, and live it.

Understanding the Numbers

St. Margaret of York submits the annual budget based on the needs of the parish ministries and the daily operations of the campus. The Sunday and online collections as well as one-time annual stock or grant offerings fluctuate from month to month. Fixed costs such as employees and debt payments play a major role in the budget, but utilities and maintenance fluctuate greatly depending on weather and space use. St. Margaret of York continues to be a "Good Servant" to the donations of the parishioners. The numbers reflected in the column to the left are based on the annual need and where we are relative to the expected budget.

We have completed the 29th of 52 weeks in the fiscal year. Based on the amount received, we are $49,500 YTD on the positive side of the budget. It is important to point out that this number does not guarantee that we will be on the plus side of the budget come June 30th when our fiscal year ends.

Notes from Honduras

The people of the parish pray for everyone at St. Margaret of York at every Mass on every day. The world has changed for them when people like you started sponsoring the children at Home of Nazareth School. We have been doing this for 14 years. The people in the community of Pedregal, Tegucigalpa are poor and the area is dangerous. The school, Hogar de Nazaret (Home of Nazareth) was originally built to give the children in the community a safe place to be during the day. The school continues to serve the poor and students receive an excellent education. The community is very proud of Home of Nazareth.

The weekend of February 18 & 19, we will be in the Narthex of the church collecting monetary donations after all of the Masses. All of the funds will be given to San Jose Obrero (St. Joseph the Worker) and Hogar de Nazaret (Home of Nazareth) School.

The people of Honduras are suffering greatly from a lack of food. People are dying from starvation. The government has no programs to help the poor with food, housing, employment, etc. The last two years have been devastating. All money collected will feed the poorest students at Home of Nazareth School as well as the poorest members of the church.

Fr. Sevilla has a team of volunteers that help put together "baskets" of food. Items such as rice, tortilla flour, beans, cereal, and even toilet paper will be in the baskets. Some food will be helping folks that live on the street. Know you are in the hearts and prayers of these people.

Please keep the people of Honduras in your prayers and thank you for your generosity.

Support Group for Parents of Special-Needs Children, Self Care Night

Thursday, February 16 | 6:30pm | St. Columban, Parish Hall, Loveland, OH

Parents of special-needs children are invited to indulge in an evening of free self-care experiences at St. Columban's Parish Hall (849 Oakland Rd. Loveland, OH 45140, the Parish Hall is located downstairs) with free on-site babysitting. Managing children who have special needs is a 24/7 responsibility. Self-care is especially critical for special-needs parents, to prevent exhaustion, anger, and resentment in their family dynamic.

The evening includes several mini self-care experiences:

Facial Cleansing Treatment

- Yoga (please bring your own mat or a towel)
- Mini Facial
- Healthy Food Demonstration with Samples
- And More!

Refreshments will be served. Dress comfortably.

Make self-care a priority with us in February, by RSVPing today to confirm your attendance and child-care/supervision needs. Call or text Heidi Terselic | 630.254.8959.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Feelings and Shiny Things

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A friend of mine has a tradition on the first birthday of her children. Three items — a coin, a shot glass, and a rosary — are placed in front of the one-year-old, and whatever object he grasps supposedly bears insight into his future. A coin promises wealth, the rosary indicates holiness, and the shot glass...well, I'm sure you can guess.

Of course, the kid just grabs whatever looks coolest. They're not really choosing money or God or a party. Their choice is ruled by impulse.

These days, "I'm not feeling it," is a genuine excuse to avoid something. "I feel that," we say to indicate agreement. "I feel like..." is an acceptable way to offer our opinion. Feelings carry a lot of weight.

Before Christ, there was only the law, and the law dealt primarily with actions. Do this. Do not do this. All well and good. But with the fulfillment of the law, Christ wants us to look inwardly. He wants us to consider the influence of our feelings on our actions, and to understand how our chosen actions can, in turn, inspire certain feelings.

I'm a millennial, so, depending on your age, you may think that I feel either too much or too little. One thing I have learned, though, is that when I give my feelings free rein, my instincts immediately turn into actions. I become the toddler grasping at shiny objects with no thought for what they represent. Anger becomes unkindness. Jealousy becomes cruelty. Fear becomes selfishness.

Free will, I have come to understand, means freedom from the tyranny of feelings. If a feeling is strong enough, it can build a prison.

"If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away." — Matthew 5:30

Everyday Stewardship

Don't Live a Lie

One day, my son was explaining to his mother that he felt she had lied to him. It was nothing very important, but he wanted to take this opportunity to share how important telling the truth is to him. He explained that he simply tells it like it is in all aspects of his life. But an hour later, we caught him in a lie! Again, it was not about a matter of life and death, but it was a lie. When confronted with his own previous words on how important telling the truth was to him, he just smiled. Yes, the guilty often have no words of defense.

Jesus said it best in Matthew 5: "Let your 'yes' mean 'yes' and your 'no' mean 'no.'" He was warning his disciples about false oaths and then instructing them on the fullness of the Hebrew laws. We may try to do what we say and say what we mean, but it can be all too easy to fall short. We call ourselves disciples yet provide evidence to the contrary by our actions (or lack of them).

Even if we feel that we have lied to no one, we may have lied to ourselves. We portray ourselves as generous, thankful, and loving people, yet fail to answer God's call in a situation because we perceive the cost to be too great. Jesus did not simply mean for his message to be about two words. He also meant that when you say you are a disciple, make sure you are a disciple as well.

Leading a Liturgical and Vocational Household

June 3, 2023 | 8:30 am - 1 pm | Mount St. Mary's Seminary & School of Theology, Cincinnati, OH

This seminar will serve to form Catholic families with practical leadership tools to raise vocationally aware and faithful children. Parents will hear from experts on how to organize a family prayer routine, how to lead your spouse continually to Christ, and how to witness to your immediate family on a daily basis. There will be time for discussion of implementing practices into life with fellow parents who are also seeking further personal and spiritual formation to raise godly families. Cost: $30 (includes breakfast and lunch) Check in and Material Pick Up: Following Mass. Questions? Contact Allegra Thatcher | athatcher@athenaeum.edu | 513.213.6116
