Discipleship Maker Index Survey

January 21–February 27

It's official! The Disciple Maker Index Survey opens this week and we need your help!

Please help us participate by completing a 10–15 minute survey as soon as possible.

- Go to <http://bit.ly/3QKQvnu>
- There is also an option to complete the survey via paper. Please contact the parish office for a paper copy.

The survey will only be available from January 21 – February 27 and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as whole.

We are trying to get the highest response rate possible. This information will be invaluable to St. Margaret of York and our various ministries as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be. We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

Thank you for helping with this important project!

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18; 1Corinthians 3:16-23; Matthew 5:38-48

People sometimes invoke the Bible quote: "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth!" This is often used by those who say that the Bible teaches us about retaliation for being wronged. It certainly seems so fair: 'if someone hurts me, I am permitted to hurt them'. It also seems just: 'I am not permitted to hurt someone to a greater extent than they hurt me.' But...as equitable and just as this may seem, it is not good enough for Jesus. Remember, He begins the teaching about this by saying: "You have heard it said: 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth...but I say to you'..." Jesus does not accept that we have the right to hurt someone just because they have hurt us. We are supposed to be better than this! He even says that we must learn to 'turn the other cheek' to someone who hits us, and to 'hand over our cloak' to someone who needs it. What happened to 'fair' and just? Why do we, as followers of Jesus, have to go beyond what appears so sensible? This is where the believing Christian has to go beyond what seems so humanly 'sensible' to something much more profound: Love. It is only through love that we can let go of past hurts, allow ourselves to be healed, and begin to share in God's own attitude toward His people which is proclaimed in our Responsorial Psalm: "The Lord is kind and merciful!" It is not to a contrived existence of 'fairness' to which we are called, but to a life of compassion, forgiveness, and mercy: all based on love. This means, among other things, that we do not harbor hatred for others, even those who have hurt us. This does not mean that we become passive in the face of injustice, or thoughtless in the protection of the lives of others or ourselves. Rather, it means that we look to the example of Jesus, who spoke the truth, called people to holiness, and lived for others. So let us thank God for His constant goodness to us, His absolute love for us, and the fact that He is, indeed, "kind and merciful," going far beyond what is merely "fair" or "just". And we, who are made in His image, have the opportunity to do the same!

Fr. Ed Smith
