Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Zechariah 9:9-10; Romans 8:9, 11-13; Matthew 11:25-30

The 4th of July is a significant day for me and my relationship with our parish: July 4, 2022, was the date of my first Mass as the new parochial vicar [assistant] at St. Margaret of York. And who would have thought then that 12 months later I would be officially assigned as your pastor! It's hard to believe that I have been here a year already. All of you have made the time go so fast! We have been making a holy journey together, and I am very grateful that you are in my life. The 4th of July also brings to mind for me a long-ago visit to the Statue of Liberty, and especially the impact of the words inscribed on it: "Give me your tired, your poor..." In the Gospel reading provided for us for this weekend. Jesus says something similar, but much more powerful: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Jesus, like the statue, points out a harbor of safety and the promise of a better life. But Jesus goes far beyond what even our great country can pledge. Because Jesus gives us an invitation to share in His life. Moreover, in our Gospel passage for this Sunday, His offer follows an astonishing prayer of ecstasy and praise, in which the intimate relationship of the Father and the Son is revealed, as well as how important we [the 'little ones'] are to Jesus. So, when He says: "Come to me," He is drawing us into His life with the Father and the Holy Spirit...a life in the Trinity...a life of perfect love. And Jesus wants us to understand how important our lives are to Him: He instructs us and wants us to know that we are unconditionally loved by God; He comforts us in our times of pain, grief and distress; and He calls us to salvation: a life with Him in heaven forever. This is why we can and must "Come to Him" time and time again: He is everything we need. He is the answer to all our hopes. He is Jesus. And He gives us a reason for celebrating our freedom as God's beloved children, and to celebrate it every day...not only on the 4th of July, or even a one-year anniversary of being at this wonderful parish!

Everyday Stewardship

Many young people want to make a path for themselves in life without the help and guidance of others. My own young adult son oftentimes refuses assistance because he feels that he must learn to go it alone and have his achievements based solely upon his effort. However, few truly get anywhere of circumstance without the aid of others.

The body of Christ only functions well when we move together and help each other. Unfortunately, too often parts of the body seek to do their own thing and do not integrate with the other parts. We use our gifts in ways that are only focused on our own gains and our own being. But be mindful, our gifts exist in us to be cultivated and shared with God and his people.

In the same manner, with Jesus as the head of this body, he is there for us as well. In Jesus we find our rest and assistance with our burdens. I cannot imagine life without the compassion and aid of our God. If it isn't bad enough that some people fail to lean on their brothers and sisters, some of them fail to ever turn to God.

This is never good stewardship. A stewardship way of life seeks to share and integrate with others, especially Jesus. We have been created for community. If we take seriously our discipleship, a true relationship with Jesus always beckons us into community with other believers. Here we are strongest. Here we are the most fruitful. Here we are Christ's body on earth.

Question & Answers

Coming Back to Church

Question:

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer:

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.
