Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

1 Kings 3:5, 7-12; Romans 8:28-30; Matthew 13:44-52

Welcome back to our SMOY Fest weekend! Every year we gather together to celebrate as a parish, enjoy one another's company, eat well, play games, ride rides, and generally just have a great time. We do our part to make life more joyful in our little piece of God's Kingdom. And it is that Kingdom we are looking at this weekend. So, what can we say about it? The Kingdom is important...the kingdom is eternal...and the Kingdom is the theme for our readings this weekend. In the first reading, Solomon asks for wisdom. In the second, St. Paul reminds us that, for those who love God, all things will work out for good. In the Gospel, Jesus tells us, through parables, that the Kingdom of God, which is more precious than buried treasure or fine pearls, welcomes everyone. These three themes seem very different, but they converge when we look backward from the last reading to the first. The Kingdom of God [the presence of Jesus among us] is of supreme value. It is worth sacrifice and even the willingness to renounce earthly things [like buried treasure or fine pearls] and it demands a life of trust and fidelity (Gospel). In embracing God's Kingdom, we begin to see how, even in a confusing and difficult world, God's love makes things work out for good (Romans). Finally, we need wisdom in order to make the choices that help us become the people God created us to be: His beloved children of the Kingdom (1 Kings). In the end, it comes down to following Jesus, who teaches us wisdom, teaches us how to love, and offers us a place in His Kingdom, where there is peace, purpose and joy. And not just on our festival weekend, but always!

Protecting the Sanctity of Life in Its Earliest Stages with Guest Speaker: Bob Wurzelbacher

Monday, July 31, 2023 | 7:00pm | St. Columban, Parish Hall, Loveland, OH

We live in a time when so many in our culture promote values contrary to human life itself. These include life issues such as abortion. In Ohio an initiative on the ballots in November is seeking an abortion rights constitutional amendment that expands and enshrines abortion at the expense of protections of preborn children and women. Join our Family of Parishes in St. Columban's Parish Hall (894 Oakland Road| Loveland, Ohio 45140) to hear guest speaker: Bob Wurzelbacher's presentation regarding the November election and the dangers of the ballot initiative coming to Ohio this November. Bob Wurzelbacher is the Director of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati's Office of Respect Life Ministries. Questions? Contact Mary Beth Meyer, Pastoral Associate, by email at mbmeyer@stcolumban.org or by phone at 513.683.0105

Before being approved to work with youth in our parish or school all adults (18+) must complete the SafeParish™ training and complete an online background check. More Info: smoy.org/safe-environment

Safe Parish: Revised Decree on Child Protection

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati, in keeping with its policies, has completed the five-year revision of the Decree on Child Protection. Each user with a SafeParish account will need to download, acknowledge to have read, and agree to abide by the requirements of the revised Decree. If this is not completed within 30 days of the promulgation of the Decree by the Archbishop, the user's SafeParish account will show as pending until the user completes the acknowledgement. Users with pending SafeParish accounts are not permitted to work or volunteer with youth until they have met all the child protection requirements and their SafeParish account is approved. Please contact Jacilyn Jackson our safe environment coordinator with any questions.

Please note if you have 5+ members in your group it is recommended to schedule two time slots.

THY KINGDOM COME!

Practicing Catholic

In my freshman year of high school, I was fairly miserable at identifying the five essential elements of plot (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution).

To this day, the only reason I remember anything about them at all is because my English teacher used episodes of Scooby Doo to illustrate the different elements. Falling action vs. climax is where I got tripped up, the two are similar, and only discernible if you examine them relative to each other.

Every Scooby Doo episode has a big dramatic sequence (the climax) where the ghost/monster/zombie chases The Gang through the haunted mansion. The falling action is what comes immediately after: searching for her glasses that she lost during the chase, Velma bumps into a pulley wheel disguised behind a tapestry and realizes the ghost/monster/zombie is actually the janitor in a costume, hooked up to an elaborate cable system jerry-rigged throughout the mansion. Meddling kids.

I confused the two because, to me, they are both equally dramatic: the chase and the fallout.

It occurs to me that, if you look at the course of salvation history, we are living in the falling action, not the climax. Take the parable of the treasure in the field: we have found the treasure. But we haven't yet bought the field.

I often make the mistake of thinking I am still lost in the climax, searching for the truth. But I know exactly where the truth is.

What I need to be concerned with is this: am I doing what I need to do to buy the field?

"Wonderful are your decrees; therefore I observe them. The revelation of your words sheds light, giving understanding to the simple." — Psalm 119.

Question & Answers

Kissing the Altar at Mass

Question:

Why do priests kiss the altar at the start of Mass?

Answer:

Our churches and chapels are filled with symbols. We might think of the more common symbols (like the crucifix, statues, stained-glass windows, vestment color and altar cloths) as well as major symbols (such as the paschal candle and the baptismal font). But there are some things that we can take for granted in our sacred spaces, because unfortunately, they seem to just be part of the building, including three of the main symbols of our liturgy: the ambo (lectern), the chair for the priest celebrant, and the altar.

These three objects are placed in a specially designated area called the sanctuary. They are the places where the Word of God is proclaimed, where the priest prays and presides at the celebration, and where the bread and wine are offered by the priest during the Eucharistic Prayer. Although each of these objects is sacred because of the role they play in our worship, the altar holds a special place. In a document containing the rules and instructions for the Mass — the “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” — we read: “The altar on which the Sacrifice of the Cross is made present under sacramental signs is also the table of the Lord to which the People of God is called together to participate in the Mass, as well as the center of the thanksgiving that is accomplished throughout the Eucharist” (no. 296).

One of the ways that we recognize the importance of the altar is when the priest and deacon kiss the altar at the beginning of Mass. Kissing is an ancient act of devotion. Remember, we also kiss the cross on Good Friday, and the deacon or priest kisses the “Book of the Gospels” after the Gospel is proclaimed. This act of devotion reminds us that the altar is a symbol of Jesus, the “living stone” (see 1 Peter 2:4), the foundation stone of our faith. It is a symbol gesture, but it is a powerful reminder of the One on whom our faith is built and in whose name we gather as the “household of faith” (see Galatians 6:10).

To learn more, see the “Catechism of the Catholic Church” (no. 1382-1383).

Everyday Stewardship

What Is God Asking of You?

What are you willing to give for the sake of the kingdom of God? Often, we begin a discussion like this with a story or a few leading thoughts. However, if we are to be serious about who we claim to be as Christians, there should be no beating around the bush. The question is not only important for each of us and our relationship with our God, but it should be important for the relationship each of us has with the entire Body of Christ. Like any good team or family, I need you to have my back, and I need to have yours. If one of us is going to lay it on the line and be all in for our faith, then we all need to be as well.

If only all the Christians of the world felt the same way. In some parts of the world, Christians are still being martyred for their faith. Others must worship underground and avoid the government-led police. Then there are those who seem to take faith for granted, and because little is asked by their friends or parish, they give nothing. It is quite a contrast of situations.

On this day, it may seem like little is being asked of you and I by God. Is that because we aren't being asked or because we aren't listening? If you are counting on me and I am on you, we should figure this out sooner than later. Of course, I suspect we actually do know the answer, don't we?
