IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" - Mt 14:28-30

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a; Romans 9:1-5; Matthew 14:22-33

A few important questions: How do we hear God? How do we experience Him? What do we expect from Him? Let's look at some answers to all this in our readings for this weekend. The prophet Elijah, to his astonishment, finds that the Lord is not in the mighty wind or in the earthquake or in the fire [the ways in which he expects to find Him] but rather that the Lord was in a "tiny whispering sound." Why is this important? If you think of it, God could probably convince any one of us that He is present if He appeared in some spectacular, explosive, thundering and even frightening way. We could not help but notice Him. It takes a person of deep faith, like Elijah, to hear God in that tiny, whispering sound. It takes even greater faith to listen to that sound, to respond, and to follow the God who is the origin of that whisper of love. Elijah does this. And Jesus, in the Gospel, takes it even further, showing that the noise, danger and tumult of the storm at sea is no match for His calming [whispering?] presence. As the disciples become more and more terrified, Jesus spoke to them in the storm, saying, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." [Note: The Gospel does not say, "He shouted" but simply "He spoke to them."] This message of courage is what Jesus says to all of us, no matter what 'storm' we are facing in life. Trusting in His voice [even though at times it might seem the tiniest whisper and difficult to hear] is the response of the person of faith. May all of us grow in faith, so we can hear, respond and follow Jesus when He quietly tells us not to be afraid, that He is here with us, and that He will never leave us to face our perils alone!

Fr. Ed Smith
