Pray Together:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our
daily bread,
and forgive us our
trespasses,
as we forgive those who
trespass against us,
and lead us not into
temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

"Even the weakest
and most vulnerable,
the sick, the old, the
unborn and the poor,
are masterpieces of God's creation"

- POPE FRANCIS

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Sirach 27:30-28:9; Romans 14:7-9; Matthew 18:21-35

"Tell us a story!" can often be heard by adults from children. Jesus knows that the desire to hear a good story is ingrained in us from our earliest days and boy does He deliver! This wonderful parable begins with the simple question from St. Peter: "How often must I forgive my brother, as many as seven times?" At first, it might seem that Peter is being petty...only seven times? But think of it: if someone were to wrong us: Time after time after time after time after time after time after time [that's seven times, by the way], it would become quite a lot to take. How does Jesus respond? With a great story about a king who forgives and a servant who does not. The core of this parable is that there are no limits to forgiveness. If God forgives us for so much, how can we not see that we need to forgive one another? How can we refuse to bring that healing touch of God's love and forgiveness to others if we call ourselves Christian? This does not mean that we are naïve about life or turn ourselves into doormats. Jesus shows us that mercy does not mean stupidity. We need to be sensible, yes, but mercy should come first. Why? Because forgiveness, mercy, and love provide a framework for Christian life, and therefore a happy life. Jesus tells us stories about it, teaches about it, and lives it. And we are called to do the same!

Stephen Ministry Training

Monday, September 18 | 6:30 pm | St. Columban, Loveland, OH

Ever thought about becoming a Stephen Minister or returning to the ministry if you are already trained? As part of our Family of Parishes, St. Columban will be training another class of Stephen Ministers beginning on September 18 at 6:30 pm. Stephen Ministers work alongside our priests to care for, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support to people who are going through a difficult time, such as divorce, grief, hospitalization, unemployment, terminal illness, relocation, chronic illness, or loneliness. If you have gifts for caring, encouragement, and listening, please begin to prayerfully consider whether you might want to be part of this exciting ministry. If you think you might be interested, email Mary Beth at St. Columban, mbmeyer@stcolumban.org.

If you are already trained as a Stephen Minister, you are invited to work through St. Columban's Stephen Leaders to minister to those who need your gifts. You can contact Mary Beth directly to get back into this ministry.

Items include various unique religious and devotional items such as beautiful carvings of Nativity Scenes, Crucifixes, and pictures of the Last Supper. Please look over these carvings after Mass in the Narthex and help support this self-help project that enables the Christians, present in the Holy Land, to stay in their homes
