Let us pray:

Hail, Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee.

Blessed art thou among women
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners,
now and at the hour of our death.
Amen.

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11; 2 Peter 3:8-14; Mark 1:1-8

December is upon us, we are in the middle of holiday preparations, with all its demands. And what does the Church give us? Instead of a soothing and relaxing reading, we are provided with a Gospel that hits the ground running and never stops. The opening lines of the Gospel of Mark that we read this weekend plunge us into the ministry of John the Baptist, and from there it will move quickly and almost breathlessly to show the world that Jesus truly is the Son of God. For those of us who have inherited nearly 2,000 years of Christian belief, this is not surprising, but it certainly was when Mark was writing his Gospel. And curiously, he begins not with the ministry or even the birth of Jesus, but instead the work of his cousin John, who was baptizing in the Jordan River. What is it about this man that we should remember today? John was Jesus' "herald" who proclaimed that the Messiah was very near. He was the last of the prophets, and was sent by God to form a people "well-disposed" to hearing Christ's message. He was the humble servant who said of Jesus, "He must increase, and I must decrease."

It seems that the life of this remarkable person has a good deal to do with our own lives today. We are called, as Christian believers, to show others that Christ is near. We are to help people hear the message of Jesus. We are to allow Jesus to increase in us, humbly letting ourselves decrease, so that our very lives may reflect the beauty, compassion and love of the Son of God. This is the Christian's way of observing the season of Advent. Imagine the powerful healing, care, goodness and love that can be experienced by following the great example of John the Baptist! His mission is also ours. Jesus is very near. Let us prepare to welcome Him!

& Carols
*December 13th
6:00pm*

We remember and recall the story of our salvation history, so that it may prepare us to receive more fervently, more prayerfully, and more joyfully the Christ-child. Enjoy "Lessons and Carols," one of Advent's most beloved traditions. Lessons and Carols is a Christmas celebration that dates back well over one hundred years and is followed around the world in a multitude of different places.

The event is free but we will be collecting items for our local food pantry that will be used to make bundles of breakfast and lunch for children on winter break.
