Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Isaiah 61:1-2a, 10-11; 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24; John 1:6-8, 19-28

As we all know, most people do not love to wait, whether it is on the phone or in a doctor's office. However, the entire season of Advent is about waiting, but today we hear that our waiting is not without joy. And each of the three readings gives us something to think about concerning this: The prophet Isaiah is waiting for the great jubilee year; St. Paul is waiting for the second coming; and St. John's Gospel tells us that the One whom we are waiting for is already among us. This is a lot of waiting! And at the same time, we are given reasons to be joyful.

That is why the Third Sunday of Advent is called "Gaudete" Sunday. "Gaudete" is not a word that people see very often these days. There are at least two reasons for this: One is because it is Latin, and not too many people go around speaking Latin anymore; but another reason might be that the word means "rejoice", and many people today don't see much to rejoice about. To be sure, there are great difficulties in our world: poverty, terrorism, issues with the economy, a crisis of faith, a loss of a sense of family and much more. And the thought of adding the concept of "waiting" to this list only seems to make matters worse.

But today, on this Third Sunday of Advent, the Church calls us all to "rejoice". This is because the Messiah... whom Isaiah so desperately hoped for, whom John the Baptist prepared for, and whom St. Paul preached with such energy...this same Messiah is here with us now. He is healing, consoling and changing lives.

So, what are we waiting for if He is already here? Liturgically, we await the coming of Christmas when we remember the coming of Christ in Bethlehem. As a Church, we await the coming of Christ at the end of time to bring all things into His kingdom. As individuals, we await the coming of Jesus into our hearts and souls every day through the sacraments, the scriptures, and the people around us. Waiting, therefore, can be exciting and fulfilling. And, as this Sunday's readings remind us, it can also be joyful. Gaudete! Rejoice!

Quilting for a Cause

January 14 | 1:00-5:00 p.m. | Parish Hall

Quilting for a Cause meets once a month in the St. Columban Parish Hall. Over their 10 years, they have donated hundreds of quilts to many organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area, including Loveland Health Care Center and the Ronald McDonald House. They have collected bins of all kinds of fabric, thread and batting and are always looking for more hands to turn these materials into wonderful hand-crafted items for those in need. No sewing or quilting skills are required – they will help you learn. If you prefer to knit or crochet, they will gladly accept those items as well.

All St. Margaret of York parishioners are welcome to join! The next gathering is January 14th.

Baptism Prep Classes

All sacraments require preparation. Baptism Prep Class is for expectant parents who want to have their child baptized. (If your child is already here, congrats. We will still help you prepare for their Baptism with this class.) Once you have completed the paperwork from the class, you will be able to set the date for your child's Baptism. Baptism prep is required for additional children if it's been 4 or more years since your last class or there is a change in pastor. Contact: baptism@smyoy.org to sign up for a class. Please provide your phone number when signing up. You can register for the class anytime during your pregnancy.

Beyond the Parish Doors

Beyond our parish doors, there is a wealth of events and opportunities with external Catholic organizations. Visit <https://smoy.org/beyond-parish-doors> to see more events and volunteer opportunities in the greater Catholic community.
