Join us every Saturday in church

During Adoration at 3:00 p.m., we will say a prayer as per Jesus's request to St. Faustina of the Divine Mercy.

"At three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony. This is the hour of great mercy. In this hour, I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion" (Diary of St. Faustina. 1320)

Fathers Team

We invite fathers of all ages to join us at Fathers Team for informal fellowship and a deepening relationship with our Lord. We meet at 7:03 p.m. Thursdays in the Father Jan Schmidt Room (right off the new entrance) and at 6:03 a.m. Friday mornings in the Gathering Space.

Upcoming topics:

- January 25/26: Moving from Parent to Adult Mentor with your Kids
- February 1/2: The Stages of Marriage
- February 8/9: Strategies for Keeping your Grandkids Catholic

For more information, please e-mail fathers.team.smoy@gmail.com.

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Jonah 3:1-5, 10; 1 Corinthians 7:29-31; Mark 1:14-20

The Gospel this weekend almost makes us think we should be several weeks ahead, celebrating the First Sunday of Lent, since the readings talk about the great Lenten theme of "change". Jonah tells the people of Nineveh that things must change. St. Paul tells the Corinthians that change is coming. Jesus tells his disciples that the change is here, and the Kingdom is at hand.

What is this change? How does it affect us? What should we do about it? All three readings converge on this theme: "Repent and Believe". This is the beginning of the life of a true Christian. We turn away from all that keeps us from loving God and our neighbor [repent], and we embrace the Good News of Jesus and His message of salvation [believe]. These two words, repent and believe, involve the entire life of a person. Over and over again we have to deal with temptation and sin, with thoughtlessness and selfishness. Each day presents new difficulties and the opportunity to face them with faith and courage.

But our life as Christians does not mean simply that we turn away from sin. We also embrace the Gospel. We embrace Jesus. This makes 'turning away' possible in the first place. In giving ourselves over to faith in Jesus we are changed: we no longer live for ourselves, but for Him. We no longer need to rely on our own strength but find power in Him to overcome the things that keep us from being the people that God created us to be. This is not a 'one time' event, but a lifetime of work for the believer. And so, whether we are in Ordinary Time or in the season of Lent, the message is clear: repent and believe. In doing so we are following the command of Jesus and drawing closer to Him in holiness and love.

Events with a red bar under them are at St. Margaret

1 Mental Health First Aid

January 22 and 29 | 6:00-9:00 p.m. | St. Columban Parish Hall

Nearly 1 in 5 individuals in the US live with mental illness. As persons of faith, how can we be the hands and feet and face of Christ to those who are experiencing a mental health crisis? Mental Health First Aid is an evidence-based class that teaches participants common signs and symptoms of mental health and substance use challenges, as well as how to interact with a person in crisis and connect a person with help. The class also helps to break down the stigma around mental health. Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio will be offering MHFA at St. Columban. The class involves 2 hours of online pre-work as well as attendance at both sessions. If you are interested in attending, contact Mary Anne Bressler, Parish & Community Engagement Coordinator, at mbressler@ccswoh.org, 513-672-3714.

Just Faith ministry

To enhance your Lenten journey
Thursdays, February 8-April 4
7:00-9:00 p.m.

"Speak out for the rights of all who are destitute. Defend the rights of the poor and needy." (Proverbs 31:8-9) As Christians, we are called to address the root causes of injustice while serving with love to care for those experiencing hunger and poverty, and thereby embracing our Creator's vision of hope, love, and peace. Are you looking for a place to learn about and to dialogue with others on issues you are passionate about? Are you looking for practical ways to address today's issues? Just Faith may be just what you are looking for, a positive way to put your faith into action.

This Lent, St. Columban will be offering the archdiocesan recommended program called Just Faith. There will be four separate 8-week programs, consisting of one, two-hour session per week. The initial program is foundational to the other three and represents a compact overview of the Just Faith program, after which you can participate in one or more of the remaining program segments depending on which ones typically meet your specific interests. Each session will be led by a trained Just Faith facilitator. Registration information will be announced in January.

Prayerfully consider this spiritual growth opportunity, which is uniquely faith-enriching and probably experientially different from any other program you may have encountered. And prayerfully listen! Someone is knocking on your door! Direct questions to Mary Beth at mbmeyer@stcolumban.org.

The Last Words of Christ on the Cross

Parish Mission with Liz Kelly

February 9 and 10
