Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Exodus 20:1-17; 1 Corinthians 1:22-25; John 2:13-25

When I was a young child, many years ago, I don't think there were such things as "parenting classes" for moms and dads. It was presumed that parents used their own common sense, mixed with love for their kids, and did the best they could. And often this was very good indeed! Perhaps what made so many of our parents so good at what they did was that we knew enough to trust them. An important part of growing up is trusting that those who have charge of us [parents, teachers, guardians, and ultimately God] have the best intentions for us. When we are not old enough or are not yet able to understand all the reasons for a rule, we may be asked simply to obey. This is not easy but needs to be done at times. And although it is a good start, it is not enough as we mature and learn and make our own decisions in life. We need to know "why" as we seek to do what is best. Jesus wants us to do more than just obey God's law on the surface. We must let it penetrate our hearts and change us, so that everything we do becomes an act of obedience and love for God. This means that we want to do more than simply keep the letter of the law [which is certainly important], but also live out the holiness that the law is meant to inspire in us. Periodically, we sing the hymn "Deep Within" during Lent. As we sing together, we are reminded that God's law is implanted in our hearts and is not just something to observe in some detached manner. The Law of the Lord needs to become part of who we are. In the middle of Lent, it is good to remember that the commandments, the teachings of Jesus, the precepts of the Church and the instructions of our faith all come together as a blueprint on how to construct a holy life, filled with goodness, love, peace and happiness. And, in the end, that is what any parent would want for their kids. How much more, then, does God want this for His beloved children!

2 Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) Info Session

Sunday, March 17 | 12:00-1:00pm | Day Chapel

Join us for a parent info session on March 17th in the Day Chapel from noon to 1:00pm. Cindy Wurzelbacher, lead catechist, will present and share her journey to becoming a catechist.

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is a Montessori-inspired religious formation program at SMOY. It helps children ages 3 to 6 develop a bond with Jesus and engage fully in Church life. In the "atrium," a specially prepared environment, children hear Scripture, pray, and work with hands-on materials. These materials cover topics like Jesus' life, sacraments, Mass articles, prophecies, parables, and practical life skills. Through these activities, children cultivate habits for prayer and contemplation. Registration for the 2024-25 school year opens soon, with priority given to attendees of the March 17th meeting. Contact Amanda Glenski for more information at amandajglenski@yahoo.com.

Everyday Stewardship

Parents Just Don't Understand

Anybody remember the old rap song by the Fresh Prince, aka Will Smith, "Parents Just Don't Understand?" As we grow up, it is sometimes a struggle for us to imagine that our parents understand us. It can seem impossible that Mom and Dad remember the stress of exam week or peer pressure. We never saw them as children; we never saw their disappointed faces when they weren't invited to a party, or their dashed hopes at a bad test grade. We never saw them homesick their first week of college or nervous to ask their crush to Homecoming.

We're often the same way about God. We gripe about what He asks of us. "He doesn't understand sin — he's all-good," we think. "He doesn't understand temptation — He is perfect."

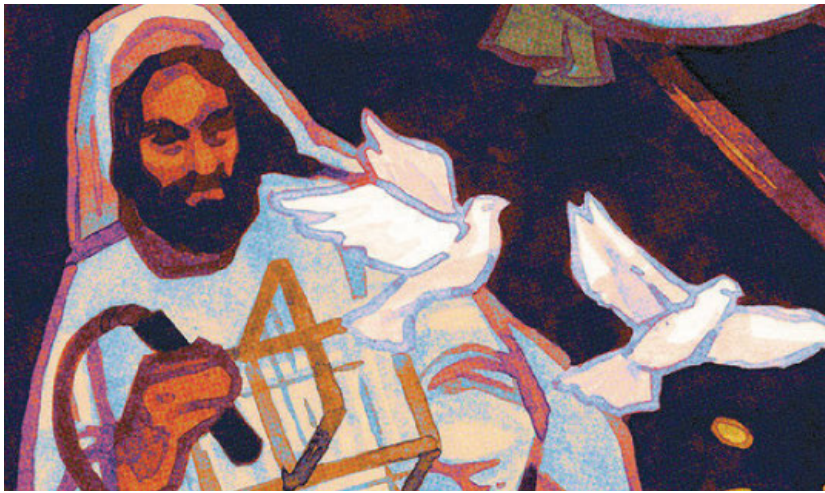

In Scripture, God can be very much a father, telling us what we can and cannot do. And yet, in His divine genius, He is sometimes simply a man at a well, asking for a drink.

For me, it turns out I didn't need to tell my parents anything about what I was going through as a kid — they knew already. What I needed was for them to tell me what to do, and how to do it.

Similarly, we don't need to tell God about human nature. We need God to tell us about His nature. He's good enough to ask us for a drink, to enter into our humanity. But we have to remember, for our own sakes, to have the humility to ask Him for something, too — the water that will quench our eternal thirst.

Practicing Catholic

The Merciful Anger of Jesus

Watch your fellow churchgoers today as the priest or deacon reads the story of Jesus raising hell (or perhaps he's raising heaven?) in the temple square. Dollars to donuts, they'll be squirming.

As Catholics, we have become very uncomfortable with Angry Jesus. He makes us cringe in the same way that the Old Testament God does when He calls Himself "jealous" and talks about punishment. That level of intensity makes us recoil. If it were present in a human relationship, it would be toxic and abusive, because in humanity, fierceness and love rarely coexist in a healthy way.

But what a tragedy it would be for us to mistake our relationship with God for our relationship with our spouse, our best friend, or even our human father. Because we cannot see clearly, we would mistake His zeal for anger and His law for dictat.

The strong and sure movement of a wave against a rocky cliff will, over time, erode its surface, just as an overabundance of raindrops will flood a city. We do not call the water callous and cruel. We still luxuriate in its coolness and refreshment. Its destructive powers don't negate the life-giving properties of water. We do not demand that water apologize to us for being strong.

Fierce, uncompromising — but also, soft and merciful. How can God — and God's law — be both, at the same time? How can Christ cast a whip at someone's foot, overturn a table and scatter coins? How can the law of God be perfect, as the Psalm says, and refresh the soul — while demanding so much of it?

All I can say is, thank God for Angry Jesus. We need his fierceness and thank God it does not wane because it confuses us. Thank God his mercy does not decrease because we doubt it.

Pray Together:

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me;
Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me;
Water from the side of Christ,
wash me;
Passion of Christ, strengthen me;
O good Jesus hear me;
Within your wounds hide me;
separated from you, let me
never be;
From the evil one protect me;
At the hour of my death, call me;
And close to you bid me; That
with your saints and angels,
I may be praising you forever and ever. Amen.
