Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Acts 4:8-12; 1 John 3:1-2; John 10:11-18

“Man is the eternal questioner.” This statement by the philosopher Martin Heidegger gives us something to think about this weekend. There is always another question to be asked, another mystery to explore, another reality to be explained. But some questions are more important than others. For instance, there is a difference in significance between “What do I believe?” and “What’s for lunch?” Today’s readings address two very important questions in life: “Who am I?” and “Who is Jesus?” The answer to the first, “Who am I?” is found in the second reading from St. John’s First Letter: “We are God’s children.” This is a beautiful way to understand ourselves. It not only shows how cherished we are by God, but it also gives us a holy standard toward which we can grow.

Just imagine what life would be like if we all lived every day as God’s beloved children. This sounds amazing. But there is more. Our readings also give us answers to the question of who Jesus is: He is our “Cornerstone” [the First Reading and Responsorial Psalm] and our “Good Shepherd” [the Gospel Reading]. In the end, these images tell us that Jesus holds us together as His people, gives meaning to our lives, and leads us as His beloved flock. He teaches us how to live, love and serve through His message and His actions of love.

Therefore, if we are “eternal questioners” we can rejoice because, as we ask the important questions in life, we know that someone is always listening and answering, and since that someone is God, He is telling us that we are indeed His beloved children, and teaching us that, with all our questions, Jesus is the answer we were looking for all along!

Final ALL. IN. Phase Begins

Thanks to the generosity of this parish we are now beginning the final phase of the All In Campaign's original building plans. It includes a complete safety remodel of the school's front entrance. The project is slated to run from May - November and will bring much needed improvements to the school building. If you did not have an opportunity to give to the All In Campaign, you may still make a contribution at anytime to this project and we thank you in advance for your continued generosity.

See the walk through video of the project visit: <https://bit.ly/4aygyaw> or scan the QR code.

The Kreidler Family Educational Gift

Since St. Margaret of York's origin in March of 1984, our community has been blessed with wonderful spiritual stewards such as our third pastor, Father Tom Kreidler. From 1996 through 2008, Father Tom guided the St. Margaret of York community. He spiritually nurtured and encouraged our community to grow in faith. In addition, we were blessed to know his family on a personal level through his homilies. Through these interactions, we have come to love and recognize the Kreidler Family members as deeply devoted to the Catholic faith with a strong commitment to Catholic education. This devotion to our Lord and commitment to Catholic education provided the inspiration for The Kreidler Family Educational Gift.

The Kreidler Family Educational Gift is an annual award that recognizes an active St. Margaret of York youth parishioner who lovingly reaches out to others in the name of Christ. This youth is a current or incoming high school student who demonstrates a willingness to serve others at SMOY and the community at large. Additional characteristics taken into consideration are participation in our parish activities and sound academic standing.

Each year, SMOY's Pastoral Council will accept applications for this educational gift. The amount of the gift is $1000 and, when awarded, shall be applied directly towards tuition expenses for a Catholic high school. The gift is nonrenewable, but may be awarded to the same St. Margaret of York youth parishioner a maximum of four times. SMOY's Pastoral Council will determine the recipient, taking into account the characteristics described above. The parish office will be responsible for overseeing the financial aspects of the gift. The recipient will be recognized in May and the award money will be sent directly to the youth's Catholic school of choice.

Applications and supporting nomination forms can be obtained on the parish website – smoy.org. Complete applications along with nomination forms (2 nominations required) should be completed no later than April 22, 2024

Pastoral Care in Action: Supporting Our Sick and Homebound Parishioners

In an effort to ensure that the parish is adequately serving the needs of our sick and homebound parishioners, please contact Fr Stephen Hughes if you have a relative who is unable to attend Sunday Mass due to an ongoing illness, injury/surgery, or age. Arrangements can be made to have an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion bring them the Blessed Sacrament after Sunday Masses. At this time only Eucharistic ministers approved by the parish can take holy communion to the sick and homebound. Confessions and the sacrament of the anointing of the sick can also be arranged. If you have questions please contact Fr. Stephen Hughes at shughes@smoy.org

Everyday Stewardship

Confidence in Princes

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, "have you prayed about it as much as you've talked about it?"

Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to Someone with a higher pay grade.

But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it.

Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it's a good sign that we're losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God?

"It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes," the Psalms tell us. Well, I've never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — "I've got this."

It's tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I'll let you in on a secret: it doesn't matter what the question is, we don't have the answer. Take it to the One who does.

Practicing Catholic

The Good Shepherd and the Wolf

I remember very clearly the first movie I watched during my pregnancy with my eldest child. In this film, there is a scene where a young boy is kidnapped and shoved into the back of a van guarded by vicious dogs. His mother persists in trying to free him, even as the dogs snap at her. Their bared teeth and full-throated snarls don't slow her efforts in the slightest.

It wasn't a great movie or even a particularly great scene, but I'll never forget this scene. I'll never forget those dogs.

I had just learned that I was a mother a few days ago. The life growing deep within seemed to me as frail as a whispered secret, but I loved it powerfully. I worried constantly if the baby was safe and healthy. I agonized over signs — real or imagined — that could tell me if the poppyseed-sized child was thriving or failing.

I understood, for the first time in my life, why a woman would charge a pack of attack dogs without hesitation — not because she should, but because she has to.

She could choose not to fight, certainly. She could walk away. But why would she? A future without her son is so much more painful than any physical wound. She may fear for her life, but she fears a life without her child so much more.

The Good Shepherd discourse reveals to us the motivation behind God's actions throughout all of salvation history. From Adam to Noah to Abraham, all the way down to the time of the Messiah and beyond, He keeps trying to get us back. He keeps braving the attack dogs, time after time. He never stops. He never grows weary. And it baffles us: what's in it for Him? we wonder, because we are quicker to give up on ourselves than He is. Why does He keep trying?

He could choose not to fight, sure. But why would He? He doesn't want a future without us.

Pray Together:

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you,

O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Question & Answer

What is a Pilgrimage?

Question:

What is a pilgrimage? Why do people go on them?

Answer:

A pilgrimage is a spiritual journey to visit a holy site, such as the shrine of a saint, a place where the Blessed Virgin Mary has appeared, or an historic church or chapel. What makes a pilgrimage different from a vacation and a pilgrim distinct from a tourist is the spirit in which the journey is made. Pilgrimages are really a symbol of our spiritual journey in life, reminding us that this world is not our true home and that we spend our lives journeying to our homeland, which is the Kingdom of God.

Pilgrimages — which can be as involved as a trip to Rome or the Holy Land or as simple as visiting the Blessed Sacrament in a local parish church — are also an opportunity for us to step out of the rhythms and limits of our daily lives to seek out connection with God in a special way, by visiting a holy place. At times, such as on a special feast, a jubilee, or the anniversary of the dedication of the church, special graces (called "indulgences") can also be offered to pilgrims, helping to enrich our experience of the celebration.

In the end, pilgrimages are an ancient act of devotion and something that each of us can put into practice, helping us to discover how God is present in the world around us, in places both near and far.
