Booth Chairs Needed

Our annual festival, vital for our parish fundraising, needs dedicated booth chairs for the Candy Shop, Mini-Golf, Color Wheel (Kids Tent), Fish Pond (Kids Tent), Kitchen Prep Coordinator, and Split the Pot. Volunteering as a booth chair is an act of stewardship and faith, reflecting St. Peter's call to use our gifts to serve one another (1 Peter 4:10). Your leadership will foster fellowship, fun, and faith in action, creating cherished memories for our community. If you feel called to serve, please contact festival@smoy.org. Together, let's make this festival a testament to our shared faith and commitment.

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40; Romans 8:14-17; Matthew 28:16-20

I remember being in a heated discussion some years ago with a fundamentalist Christian who took the Catholic Church to task for many things, but especially for our belief in the reality of the Blessed Trinity. The reason was that the word 'Trinity' does not appear in the Bible. True, the word 'Trinity' does not appear in the New Testament, but the reality of that word is certainly there. Today's readings show this clearly: St. Paul, in the Letter to the Romans, speaks of our Father in heaven, of the Spirit who bears witness that we are children of God, and of Christ, with whom we are heirs to glory. Three persons in One God. In the Gospel, Jesus tells His disciples to baptize all nations "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Three persons in One God. The truth of the Blessed Trinity is evident from the very words of Jesus Himself and the earliest teachings of the Church.

But this does not clear up the profound mystery of what or who this Trinity is. We believe in One God [as we profess in the Creed], but, somehow, this One God is also three distinct persons. This seems, to our human understanding, to be impossible. But in God, a Unity and a Trinity, we find the depth of the mystery of Divine Love. Consider this: God Himself is a community of love, eternal and perfect. And as such, God is always inviting His creation to share in that community, to share in that love.

This is why the concept of 'family' is so central to our Catholic faith. God is the perfection of a family: love, sharing, truth and life. Today we celebrate the core of our faith: the beauty and the reality of God as Father, Son and Spirit. This is not a mystery to be 'solved,' like in a detective novel, but rather the Eternal Mystery of God Himself that invites us to enter into an ever-deepening relationship of Divine Love, now, and in the life to come. We are part of God's family. What a great gift this is. And that gift is, in the end, what we celebrate today and every day!

A Family of Faith

Discover the joy of A Family of Faith, a program designed to empower parents as their children's first catechists. Open to all families, whether you homeschool, attend Catholic school, or have diverse faith backgrounds, everyone is welcome to join. This enriching program follows a four-year cycle, each year focusing on a different pillar of the Catechism.

As the heart of our religious education, A Family of Faith requires children to complete two consecutive years through this program or our parish school before receiving a sacrament. Sacramental preparation includes both in-person and at-home activities. Join us in nurturing your family's faith journey!

Registration for A Family of Faith will open via We Share soon!

Registration for Sacraments will open around the same time as A Family of Faith.

Practicing Catholic

Precious Things

I once wrote an article about a school that embraced the Reggio Emilia approach to education. This meant, in practice, a lot of fascinating things, and it was a fun piece to work on. But all these years later, I could not accurately describe the Reggio Emilia style of learning to anyone except to say this: they give the kids glass bowls and china plates.

That's what stuck with me, and that's what sticks out in my memory amidst the hundreds of intervening articles and interviews on other equally fascinating topics. I remember those glass bowls and cups lining the shelves, the fine china dishes, the beautiful shiny cutlery the children used for lunch.

This was a pre-school, and these students were three-year-olds. "If they drop a cup and it shatters, then they learn that glass can break. We clean it up," the teacher said with a shrug. The idea was that a child will never learn to handle a fragile, precious thing — and grow into an adult who can respect and cherish a fragile, precious thing — if they are not sincerely trusted with a precious thing whose fragility they bear personal witness to.

The breaking, you see, was part of the education.

The disciples worshiped, but they doubted. And yet, Christ gave them the Great Commission anyway, something fragile and important, something that could be easily dropped and easily broken. Christ knew who they were, what they were. They were mere human beings, deeply imperfect, scared and hesitant, a little slow on the uptake. He knows that's exactly what we are, too. But he gives us the Great Commission just as he gave it to them. Because that is what the Faith is: it is something perfectly beautiful, passed from one flawed person to another, throughout the ages — constantly dropped, constantly broken, and constantly, miraculously, pieced back together again.

MISSION

When we read the Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the Father. What have you learned so far about the Holy Spirit? Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up "Holy Spirit." As a family, write down the verses, find them in your Bible, and read them out loud. Talk about each verse. If you have any questions, write them down and ask your pastor or teacher for help.

Catholic Trivia

Question:

Who is the patron saint of stockbrokers and bankers?

Answer:
St. Matthew

Pray the Creed

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ,
 his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived
 by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again
 from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.

Amen.
