Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

1 Kings 19:4-8; Ephesians 4:30-5:2; John 6:41-51

A perennial question that I received when I was a high school teacher was: "If it's true that God is everywhere, and we can pray to Him anytime and anywhere we want, why do we have to go to church?" This is a good question to ask, and my students may not simply have been looking for a way to get out of going to Mass on Sundays.

Let's begin by acknowledging that their statement is correct: God IS everywhere, and we CAN pray to Him anytime and anywhere. And so, to some questions: Why go to church? Why go on Sundays? Why not just pray on our own when and where we choose? Now for an answer: First, just as we need to be with the important people in our lives, we need to be with God in a special way sometimes: Times that pull us out of our everyday life and help us focus, for at least a little while, only on God. Also, going into a church helps us see that parts of our world are dedicated completely to worshipping the Lord. Think of all the land our parish church takes up in Loveland: and it's all for God! It's His house! Furthermore, our relationship with God is not just a personal thing between 'me and God', but it involves a community of believers who pray with and for one another and give good examples of faith, hope and charity.

The Church teaches that we are part of the Communion of Saints. Finally, we Catholics go to Mass because of what we receive. Consider how blessed we are to be members of a worshipping community of faith gathered to hear to Word of God and receive the Eucharist. And, as our Gospel makes clear this weekend, the Eucharist is not "Something" but "Someone"! As we read the sixth chapter of St. John's Gospel during these weeks of summer, we are reminded that the time with God in church is privileged because we are united with our brothers and sisters to listen, to remember, to celebrate, to receive, and then to be sent back out into the world to share what we have been given.

So, if the question comes to mind about whether we should go to church or not, just remember all that we would be missing if we didn't! The profound experience of Jesus in the Mass is worth all the time and effort we put into it. See you in church!

2024/2025 PRP & Sacrament Registration

Parish children in grades 1-8 are expected to be receiving religious education either through a parish religion program (PRP) or a parish school. In lieu of traditional PRP methods, SMOY utilizes our broader Family Faith ministry to satisfy these requirements. Registration for Family Faith is available online.

If your child should be receiving their First Communion or Confirmation in 2025 please register online. If you have any questions about parish religious education or sacramental prep reach out to Jacilyn Jackson at jjackson@smoy.org.

First Communion:

Confirmation:

It's Never Too Late for Sacraments

Life gets busy, we get it. Don't let that keep your children from receiving the Sacraments of the Catholic Church. Many children get "off schedule" with celebrating their first Sacraments for any number of reasons. If circumstances have kept you from getting your children baptized or receiving First Holy Communion or Confirmation, we can help. It's not too late. Contact Jacilyn Jackson at jjackson@smoy.org to get started.

Wisdom of the Word Bible Study

Lectio: Eucharist: Discovering the Mass in the Bible

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching.

"The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.

Study begins September 18, 2024 (Study goes from September 18 - November 20)
