Burgundy Books: Reflect on Using God's Gifts Wisely

Our St Margaret of York Community is continually blessed by the gifts our parishioners bestow upon us. Thank you, as always, for your abundant generosity. As we approach the season of giving, we wish to share a gift with you. In the rear of the church there are little Burgundy Books that offer reflections on Stewardship. Please feel free to take one and spend the next four weeks before Thanksgiving reflecting on how we can all use the gifts God has given us in a way that reflects our Christian understanding of stewardship.

"All shall give as they are able, according to the blessings which the Lord your God has given you."
- Deuteronomy 16:17

Attention SMOY Shoppers

After 15+ years, a decision has been made to sunset the SMOY Shopper physical gift card program. The good news, for early-bird holiday shoppers, is we have a LIMITED supply of physical gift cards on hand that will be available until the supply runs out. More good news: individuals may set up an account using SMOY's enrollment code (A87FL3581266) to purchase either physical or e-gift cards by going to RaiseRight.com or RaiseRight's app and choose 'Join a Program' and proceed to create a username and password. With the sunseting of the SMOY Shopper physical gift card program, SMOY Shopper gift certificates are no longer available for purchase. If you have a SMOY Shopper gift certificate (on blue paper), it must be redeemed by December 20, 2024. Please stop by or call the Parish Office if you have any questions.

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Jeremiah 31:7-9; Hebrews 5:1-6; Mark 10:46-52

"I want to see!" Think of how this cry of the blind man in the Gospel is a prayer that each one of us could be offering today. We want to see: the truth, the road ahead, the best decisions to make, the right choices for a happy life, how to be a person of love and goodness. We want to see!

In the Gospel, the blind man Bartimaeus wants this too, and is not ashamed to call out to Jesus and ask for it. And even though the people around tried to stop him, he persisted. What follows is one of the most compassionate scenes from the ministry of Jesus. Stopping on His way to Jericho, Jesus gently asks the man, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replies, "Master, I want to see." Jesus responds, "Go your way; your faith has saved you," and immediately the man received his sight. Bartimaeus realized he desperately needed Jesus, and he was not ashamed to call for help. Jesus responded to this trusting faith and healed him of his blindness.

What does this have to do with us? Everything. First, we need to admit that there are "blind spots" in our lives that narrow our vision and keep us from seeing the face of God around us; then, we need to ask Jesus to remove these defects so that we might see clearly. Finally, we, like Bartimaeus, are called to follow Jesus. Imagine the joy of this man, reduced to begging because of his blindness, now given the gift of sight.

And just what was the first thing he saw? He saw the face of Jesus. Imagine his joy as his eyes were opened and he saw the Son of God standing right in front of him, looking on him with unconditional love. Jesus looks at us the same way. Jesus loves us. Jesus heals us. Considering all this, how appropriate is our Responsorial Psalm refrain for today: "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy!"

Rights & Responsibilities

Therefore every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities – to one another, to our families and to the larger society. Every basic human right draws its authoritative force from the natural law, which confers it and attaches to it its respective duty. Hence, to claim one's right and ignore one's duties, or only half fulfill them, is like building a house with one hand and tearing it down with another. St. John XXIII, Pacem in Terris, no. 30 With rights come responsibilities to others, to our families and to the common good of all.
