Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Daniel 12:1-3; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32

One of the beautiful traditions at our parish is the "giving tree" during November and December. For several weeks, people will take ornaments from it which contain the 'wish list' from individuals who need our help as we approach the celebration of the birth of Jesus at Christmas. Our parishioners will then purchase gifts and place them under the tree in order to help make this a brighter Christmas season for families in need.

Year after year our parish has made this an important part of our Advent and Christmas preparation. It is Christian charity in action and reflects the beauty of hope and trust in God's goodness and care for His people. In Jesus, we see in a very real way how much God loves everyone and wants to be part of their lives.

In this weekend's Gospel, which is filled with images of the end of the world, Jesus proclaims that He will return in power and glory to gather His people to Himself. This is the ultimate hope of all Christians: to be united with Jesus for all eternity. It is this hope which helps us see goodness in a world that sometimes looks totally selfish and even filled with terror. It is this hope that reminds us that our lives here and now provide us the opportunity to become the persons we will be forever with Jesus.

It is this reality which compels us to share what we have with one another, bring joy to one another, and to be witnesses to our faith to strengthen one another. In a word, it is our hope that gives birth to our charity toward one another. As Jesus shares His life with us, we are called to do the same with others...through many ways, including the beautiful tradition of the giving tree!

Everyday Stewardship

Giving Until it Hurts

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ's? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if "unblemished") lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ's sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

Practicing Catholic

The End of the World

"It's not the end of the world."

If I had a brick for every time my mother said this to me growing up, I could have built a castle. One that comes complete with a moat whose bridge I could dramatically pull up so I could sulk, in the window of the highest turret, sighing loudly so every passerby would know how I suffered.

Because sometimes we act like it's the end of the world — whether we are a little kid angered by a playground snub, a teenage girl flipping out over an assignment for English class or a college student distraught that she got scheduled for four opening shifts in a row at the coffee house where she works (yes, these are all examples taken straight from my life, why do you ask?).

And sometimes, it really does seem like the end of the world. We lose someone we love to cancer. We miscarry a child before we even get to see his tiny face. The rent is due, and the bank account is overdrawn (also all examples taken straight from my life).

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that when the sun is darkened and the moon no longer gives light, we must look for him, because his time is near.

He's talking about The End of the World. The big one, the apocalypse. But why do I think he's also talking about the end of the world — those sufferings large and small, real and imagined, that make us feel like the sky is caving in?

In both instances, he draws near to us. So let us look for him.

Friends of Jesus is a group for adults with developmental disabilities (18 years of age or older). This group's focus is primarily for support, prayer and socializing. We come together in prayer, do some craft-making and enjoy refreshments. New members are always welcome but must RSVP first prior to attending so we can plan for food and craft supplies. For questions or to RSVP, please contact Jane Callan at 513.793.3546.

We apologize for any errors or omissions in this publication.

St. Vincent de Paul Car Donation Program

By donating a car, motorcycle, RV, boat, trailer, or ATV to St. Vincent de Paul, you make a direct impact on the lives of our neighbors. You also can receive a tax credit. We make it easy for you - we'll pick up your vehicle and take care of the paperwork. All you have to do is give us a call at 800.322.8284, or contact us through svd-pusacars.com
