Wisdom of the Word Bible Study

Divine Mercy & Eternal Rest

This coming Winter/Spring 2025 WOW Session will feature two studies, Divine Mercy and Eternal Rest. Eternal Rest will follow immediately after Divine Mercy, and you must register for both now as there will not be a separate registration for Eternal Rest. The cost includes two workbooks, one for each study.

Divine Mercy

Renowned speaker and author Fr. Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy as interwoven through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of Maximilian Kolbe, and the world-changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II.

Eternal Rest

The art of dying well is also the art of living well. By understanding who we are and what we are made for, we can order our lives and values according to God's design for our true fulfillment. Knowing we will die someday allows us to live as prudent stewards of the time we're given, and it grants us the ability to joyfully anticipate eternal life.

Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

Daniel 7:13-14; Revelation 1:5-8; John 18:33b-37

Happy Feast Day! This weekend the Church all over the world celebrates the solemnity of Christ the King, and since we call ourselves "Christians" and are children of the Kingdom, this is not just another feast day but "OUR" feast day! And this year we celebrate 40 years of life as a parish family, thanking God for the immense gifts that He has given to this community of faith in this little corner of His Kingdom.

There is so much to celebrate, and, at first glance, it seems strange that the Gospel for this Sunday comes from the long reading from Passion of St. John's Gospel that we hear on Good Friday: Jesus being interrogated by Pontius Pilate. Ironically, it is Pilate who asks the question of Jesus that we should all be asking: "Are you a king?"

For us, who are believers who want to be His followers, we may ask this question in a slightly different way: "Are You MY King?" This means a great deal. Do we really see Jesus as our Lord and King? Do we acknowledge Him as our way, truth and life? Do we want to serve Him with our whole being?

As we conclude the Church's liturgical year and prepare for Advent, these are very good questions for our reflection. Jesus, in today's Gospel, tells us clearly what we must do to be His follower. He says: "Listen to my voice." There are many voices that surround us in the world telling us: what to do, whom we should follow, how we should act, and what we should believe in. With all this, it is important to remember that the voice of Jesus will ultimately give us true direction, wisdom, and inspiration.

Today is important because it reminds us that Jesus is our King, that we are His people, and that our lives are beautifully united in the call to love God and one another. May God bless all of us as we celebrate this holy feast, listening attentively to the gentle voice of Christ our King.

The Elizabeth Ministry

The Elizabeth Ministry is celebrating its 12th year serving the mamas and babies in our parish. With a grateful heart, I want to thank Staci Henderson who has led the ministry for the past four years as well as Mary Ann Neu, Amber Lapp, Kim Bradley and Emily Martin for their supporting leadership. And a special shout out to all of our fabulous meal makers, home visitors, blanket knitters and crocheters who act as Christ's hands in serving our mamas and babies.

If you would like to join an amazing group of women who do our very best to bring a little bit of mothering to our tired new mamas, please send me an email, text or call letting me know how you feel called to help. We would love to welcome you to our crew..

Finally, if you are a mother of a new baby in our parish (or even a not-so-new baby) and would like to learn more about our ministry and how we can make your life a little easier during this blessed time, please reach out to me. I would love to tell you all about this amazing ministry.

Saturday, January 25, 2025 | 1:00 - 3:00pm | All Saints, Montgomery, OH

Friends of Jesus is a group for adults with developmental disabilities (18 years of age or older). This group's focus is primarily for support, prayer and socializing. We come together in prayer, do some craft-making and enjoy refreshments. New members are always welcome but must RSVP first prior to attending so we can plan for food and craft supplies. For questions or to RSVP, please contact Jane Callan at 513.793.3546.
