Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

The Second Sunday of Lent

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Philippians 3:17-4:1; Luke 9:28b-36

Lent is here, and we are probably expecting the 'usual' Lenten readings about sin, conversion and mercy...but suddenly, on this Second Sunday, we find ourselves way up on Mount Tabor, with Jesus, Peter, James and John. And what occurs there is one of the most "dazzling" scenes in the Gospel; Jesus is transfigured before their eyes, and His disciples at last see Him revealed in His glory. They begin to understand how God has entered our world and revealed Himself in Jesus, and now their lives are changed forever.

This magnificent Gospel passage connects beautifully with our first reading from the Book of Genesis: God makes a covenant with Abram [who will later be called "Abraham"] by entering into the world, revealing himself, and changing lives. Abram's descendants will be as numerous as "the stars in the sky" and carry on his mission of faith.

For us, as we make our journey through another Lent, it is important to remember that God enters our world over and over again. He reveals Himself to us in many ways. He makes a covenant with us through His grace, our faith, and the sacraments. And our lives are changed.

Perhaps, therefore, a good prayer for all of us as we continue this Lenten preparation for Easter would be that we embrace whatever changes God has in mind for us, become the persons He wants us to be, and be alert to His presence and promise, including all the possibilities that are open to us as children of a loving Father. Maybe then we can "dazzle" a few people ourselves with our commitment to Jesus, His Church, and His people, through a life of Christian love.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Celebrating Our Seminarians

Curtis Gross and Peter Hoffman, two seminarians from St. Margaret of York, recently assisted Fr. Father Anthony Brausch with Mass when Heart & Soul visited the Athenaeum. Curtis will be ordained in April of 2026 and Peter is in his Propaedeutic Year (1st year).

Curtis said, "I am preparing to become a transitional deacon this April, at which point I will begin to baptize babies and preach at Mass! I thank God for inviting me into this beautiful vocation; I also thank the SMOY community and all those who have been so supportive and encouraging."

Peter, in his first year at the Athenaeum, said, "I am in what is called the Propaedeutic Stage. Along with classes it includes a technology fast and other formation elements aimed at detachment, spiritual growth, and discernment."

How blessed we are to have two seminarians from SMOY. Please keep Curtis and Peter in your prayers.

A Plea from St. Vincent de Paul

SVDP Donations Needed!

Our SVDP bank balance is rather low right now. The winter heating bills coupled with the higher rental prices in our area have lowered our available funds. Our next scheduled 5th Sunday SVDP collection is not until the March 30th weekend. Any donations ahead of that date would be greatly appreciated. Thank You in advance as we continue to assist our neighbor's in need.
