Sunday Reflection

Fr. Ed Smith

The Fourth Sunday of Lent

Joshua 5: 9a, 10-12; 2 Corinthians 5: 17-21; Luke 15: 1-3, 11-32

Among His many talents, Jesus was a superb storyteller. Over and over, He astonishes His listeners with parables that challenge and engage. Today's parable is one of His best.

Commonly known as "The Prodigal Son" or "The Forgiving Father", it tells the story of a family that is pulled apart because of selfishness and put back together because of love. The story takes us beyond the idea of "fairness" and opens up the world of God's lavish and all-embracing love for His people.

Consider what is accomplished through this parable: It gives us comfort, knowing that God [symbolized by the father] is always ready to forgive us and welcome us back; it also challenges us to be honest about judging others and the danger of keeping them at arm's length [symbolized by the older son's refusal to celebrate his brother's return]; and, of course, it asks us to look bluntly at ourselves, and the times we have walked away from God, choosing our own path, not caring whether our relationship with Him is wounded [symbolized by the younger son].

So, we have much to think about this weekend: God's care for us, our limitations in responding to it, the reality of selfishness and sin, the beauty of forgiveness, and the all-embracing gentleness of a loving Father who patiently waits for our return to Him, and who celebrates when we do. No wonder the Church calls this Sunday "Laetare," which means, "Be joyful!" Think of it this way: God's forgiving love gives us many reasons for joy this day!

Kairos prison ministry needs cookies for its upcoming retreat.

Ziplock bags with instructions are available at the doors the weekend of March 29th/30th.

Please return the cookies the weekend of April 5-6. You may leave the cookies in the bin in the gathering space.

Fathers Team Lenten Series

Next Talk: April 3-4

Join the Fathers Team for a powerful series designed to help men grow as husbands, fathers, and followers of Christ. Through honest conversations and practical insights, we'll explore what it means to live our vocations with purpose, strength, and integrity. We meet on Thursdays at 7:03 pm and Fridays at 6:03 am. Join us for one talk or attend them all! April 3-4 Topic: A Community of Men in Faith.

2

Stations of the Cross

Friday, April 4 and 11 at 7:00 pm

Join Fr. Stephen and walk with Jesus on the Way of the Cross. All are welcome. You may also use the booklets on the cart near the first station to pray the Stations of the Cross independently. On Good Friday, Stations of the Cross will take place at 12:00 pm.

3

Heart & Soul

First Friday, April 4

Join us for a fellowship gathering immediately after First Friday 8:15 am Mass & Rosary. Meet in the Gathering Space. Refreshments to be provided. Donations accepted. Please reach out to friends and invite them to join us and learn more about our fast-growing Heart & Soul Ministry.

State Capitol Tour, April 9

We will visit the Ohio Capitol in Columbus and view a session of the Ohio House and take a tour of the Supreme Court. Meet in the parking lot next to Carrabba's, 5152 Merten Road, at 7:45 am and depart promptly at 8 am and travel by bus to Columbus. Please note, if you are a member of morning WOW, arrangements have been made to attend evening WOW on April 9th. Please indicate in your RSVP. Return is scheduled before 5 pm, in time for evening WOW. Arrangements are set for this VIP tour to include meeting our local representatives. To confirm your reservation, return a check (made out to SMOY and note Capitol Tour in the memo line) to the Parish Office. Cost for the bus is $31/person. Lunch will be provided. Just a few seats available. Final Date to sign up is by Tuesday, April 1.

Save the Date: Reds Baseball Game, Thursday, May 15th at 12:40 pm versus the Chicago White Sox. We will plan to depart from Loveland at 10:30 am and head down to the GABP and return 30 minutes after the game. More details to follow in the coming weeks.

SCAN TO HELP

Found House – Interfaith Housing Network helps families overcome homelessness. St. Columban hosts 4 families 3 times a year. It takes many volunteers and donations for this program to be successful!

The Social Action Commission is interested in recruiting new members. The Found House program houses homeless families in the former St. Columban convent.

Our next host period is 3/30-4/9.

Please use the QR code to see how you can volunteer, read a refresher on volunteer duties, and contribute food donations and supplies.

We'll have a box at SMOY to receive donations the week of March 23-29. The other host weeks will be August 10 and November 9. Should you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Jenny Collado 513-600-3821 or jennyc@zoomtown.com. Thank you.

ST. MARGARET of YORK
CATHOLIC CHURCH

Second Graders Receive Sacrament of Penance

On March 19, our second graders received the Sacrament of First Reconciliation! The day before, Fr. Ed visited their classroom to help them prepare, guiding them through a mock confession and reviewing the steps to ensure they were ready for this sacred rite.

March 28-30, 2025 Jubilee Celebrating the Missionaries of Mercy

Pope Francis opened the 2025 Jubilee Year under the theme "Pilgrims of Hope," emphasizing a renewed trust in God, the Church, and society.

As part of the celebration, Pope Francis has designated special jubilees throughout the year, each honoring different vocations, life stages, or themes. Upcoming Jubilees include those for Sick and Health Care Workers (April 5-6) and Teenagers (April 25-27). These events offer moments of prayer, reflection, and celebration, recognizing holiness in various aspects of life and encouraging the faithful to support one another in their spiritual journeys.

Missionaries of Mercy are priests—diocesan or religious—who have been commissioned by the Holy Father to give particular emphasis to the duty shared by all priests to "hear confessions and preach on behalf of and promote the Sacrament of Reconciliation." They are to be an intentional, visible expression of the mercy of God, which is at the heart of the priesthood and all of Catholic life.

We invite you to honor loved ones and celebrate Easter by returning your flower offering by April 4 —thank you for your generosity!
